

(e) Section 1105(a) of title 31, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

“(30) a comparison of levels of estimated expenditures and proposed appropriations for each function and subfunction in the current fiscal year and the fiscal year for which the budget is submitted, along with the proposed increase or decrease of spending in percentage terms for each function and subfunction.”.

SEC. 4. THE CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET.

Section 301(e) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 is amended by—

(1) inserting after the second sentence the following: “The starting point for any deliberations in the Committee on the Budget of each House on the concurrent resolution on the budget for the next fiscal year shall be the estimated level of outlays for the current year in each function and subfunction. Any increases or decreases in the Congressional budget for the next fiscal year shall be from such estimated levels.”; and

(2) striking paragraph (8) and redesignating paragraphs (9) and (10) as paragraphs (10) and (11), respectively, and by inserting after paragraph (7) the following new paragraphs:

“(8) a comparison of levels for the current fiscal year with proposed spending and revenue levels for the subsequent fiscal years along with the proposed increase or decrease of spending in percentage terms for each function and subfunction; and

“(9) information, data, and comparisons indicating the manner in which and the basis on which, the committee determined each of the matters set forth in the concurrent resolution.”.

SEC. 5. CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE REPORTS TO COMMITTEES.

(a) The first sentence of section 202(f)(1) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 is amended to read as follows: “On or before February 15 of each year, the Director shall submit to the Committees on the Budget of the House of Representatives and the Senate a report for the fiscal year commencing on October 1 of that year with respect to fiscal policy, including (A) alternative levels of total revenues, total new budget authority, and total outlays (including related surpluses and deficits) compared to comparable levels for the current year and (B) the levels of tax expenditures under existing law, taking into account projected economic factors and any changes in such levels based on proposals in the budget submitted by the President for such fiscal year.”.

(b) Section 202(f)(1) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 is amended by inserting after the first sentence the following new sentence: “That report shall also include a table on sources of spending growth in total mandatory spending for the budget year and the ensuing 4 fiscal years, which shall include changes in outlays attributable to the following: cost-of-living adjustments; changes in the number of program recipients; increases in medical care prices, utilization and intensity of medical care; and residual factors.”.

(c) Section 308(a)(1) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 is amended—

(1) in subparagraph (C), by inserting “, and shall include a comparison of those levels to comparable levels for the current fiscal year” before “if timely submitted”; and

(2) by striking “and” at the end of subparagraph (C), by striking the period and inserting “; and” at the end of subparagraph (D), and by adding at the end the following new subparagraph:

“(E) comparing the levels in existing programs in such measure to the estimated levels for the current fiscal year.”

(d) Title IV of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

“GAO REPORTS TO BUDGET COMMITTEES

(a) “SEC. 408. On or before January 15 of each year, the Comptroller General, after consultation with appropriate committees of the House of Representatives and Senate, shall submit to the Congress a report listing all programs, projects, and activities that fall within the definition of direct spending under section 250(c)(8) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.”.

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of contents set forth in section 1(b) of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974 is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 407 the following new item:

“Sec. 408. GAO reports to budget committees.”.

96.7 RECORDED VOTE

A recorded vote by electronic device was ordered in the Committee of the Whole on the following amendment in the nature of a substitute submitted by Mr. SPRATT:

Strike all after the enacting clause and insert the following:

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Full Budget Disclosure Act of 1994".

SEC. 2. PURPOSE.

The purpose of this Act is to require that budget documents provide the Congress with comprehensive data on budget trends.

SEC. 3. THE BASELINE.

(a) DEFINITION.—Section 250(c)(5) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 is amended to read as follows:

"(5)(A) The term 'current policy baseline' means the projection (described in section 257) of current-year levels of new budget authority, outlays, receipts, and the surplus or deficit into the budget year and the out-years.

"(B) The term 'current funding baseline' refers to the baseline as set forth in section 257 without any adjustment described in section 257(c)(1) for inflation other than the adjustment set forth in section 257(c)(2) for expiring housing contracts."

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—Sections 251, 252, 253, and 254 of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 are amended by inserting "current policy" before "baseline" each place it appears.

SEC. 4. THE PRESIDENT'S BUDGET.

(a) Paragraph (5) of section 1105(a) of title 31, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(5) except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, estimated expenditures and appropriations for the current fiscal year and estimated expenditures and proposed appropriations the President decides are necessary to support the Government in the fiscal year for which the budget is submitted and the 4 fiscal years following that year."

(b) Section 1105(a)(6) of title 31, United States Code, is amended by inserting "current fiscal year and the" before "fiscal year".

(c) Section 1105(a)(12) of title 31, United States Code, is amended by striking "and" at the end of subparagraph (A), by striking the period and inserting "; and" at the end of subparagraph (B), and by adding at the end the following new subparagraph:

"(C) the estimated amount of expenditure and appropriation for the same activity, if any, in the current fiscal year."

(d) Section 1105(a) of title 31, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following new paragraphs:

"(30) a comparison of estimated new budget authority and outlays for each function and subsection for the current fiscal year with proposed new budget authority and outlays for the fiscal year for which the budget is submitted, along with the proposed increase or decrease of spending in percentage terms for each function and subsection.

"(31) a comparison for each function and subsection of the current policy baseline level of new budget authority and outlays for the year for which the budget is submitted with the proposed new budget authority and outlays for the year for which the budget is submitted, including changes in percentage terms for each function and subsection."

SEC. 5. CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET.

Section 301(e) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 is amended by—

(1) inserting after the second sentence the following: "As soon as practicable after the President's budget submission under section 1105(a) of title 31, United States Code, the Committee on the Budget of each House shall provide to its members the estimated level of outlays for the current year in each function and subsection."; and

(2) striking "and" at the end of paragraph (9), by striking the period and inserting a semicolon at the end of paragraph (10), and by adding at the end the following new paragraphs:

"(11) a comparison (for each function) of estimated outlays and revenues for the current fiscal year with proposed spending and revenue levels for the budget year and each outyear, including the increase or decrease (in percentage terms) of spending; and

"(12) a comparison (for each function) of proposed outlays and revenues for the budget year with the current policy baseline projection for that year, including changes (in percentage terms)."

SEC. 6. CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE REPORT TO COMMITTEES.

(a) The first sentence of section 202(f)(1) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 is amended to read as follows: "On or before February 15 of each year, the Director shall submit to the Committees on the Budget of the House of Representatives and the Senate a report for the fiscal year commencing on October 1 of that year with respect to fiscal policy, including (A) alternative levels of total revenues, total new budget authority, and total outlays (including related surpluses and deficits) compared to comparable levels for the current year and (B) the levels of tax expenditures under existing law, taking into account projected economic factors and any changes in such levels based on proposals in the budget submitted by the President for such fiscal year."

(b) Section 202(f)(1) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 is amended by inserting after the first sentence the following new sentence: "That report shall also include a table on sources of growth in the estimated total current policy baseline spending for mandatory programs for the budget year and the ensuing 4 fiscal years, which shall include changes in outlays attributable to the following: cost-of-living adjustments; changes in the number of program recipients; increases in medical care prices, utilization and intensity of medical care; and residual factors."

(c) Section 202(f)(3) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 is amended by striking "and" before "(B)", and by inserting before the period at the end the following: ", and (C) all direct spending programs".

(d) Section 308(a)(1)(C) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 is amended by inserting "and shall include a comparison of those levels to comparable levels for the current fiscal year" before "if timely submitted".
